Report of the Activity

On 03 Feb 2020, R. S. College conducted a workshop on listening skills for students. The workshop began with an introduction by Dr. K. R. Patil, who explained the importance of listening skills in both personal and professional settings. The facilitator then went on to discuss the different types of listening, including active listening, empathetic listening, and critical listening.

The workshop included counselling exercises and activities, such as practicing active listening with a partner. The workshop emphasized the importance of attitude, attention, and adjustment in building good listening skills, also known as triple-A listening. The workshop focused on active listening strategies and the competencies required for effective communication in academic and professional settings.

The college expects its graduates to possess basic and advanced speaking and listening competencies, which are essential communication skills for success in the workplace and society.

Report of the Activity

The R. S. college organized a goal planning workshop for its students on 17 Jan 2020. The workshop was conducted by [name of facilitator] and attended by [number of students] to help the participants address their objectives and plan for the future. The workshop was facilitated by Dr. Shivaji Madan and was designed to help the elected and appointed participants categorize their goals under different pillars.

The workshop started with a brief introduction on the importance of goal setting and how it can help individuals achieve success in their personal lives.

The participants were also tasked with reviewing, validating, and revising the community vision and organizational mission statements

The workshop emphasized the importance of setting SMART goals, which are specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound

The participants were also taught time management skills, including planning, setting goals, delegation and analysis of time spent, monitoring, and organizing

Overall, the workshop was a success, and the participants left with a better understanding of how to set and achieve their goals.

Analysing Complex Situations Workshop Report

Aim & Objective of the activity:

The aim of the analyzing complex situations workshop was to equip participants with the skills and knowledge necessary to effectively analyze and navigate complex situations. The workshop aimed to:

1. Introduce participants to the concept of complexity and its various dimensions, such as multiple stakeholders, uncertainty, and interdependencies.
2. Provide participants with analytical frameworks and tools to help them make sense of complex situations, including systems thinking, scenario planning, and risk analysis.
3. Encourage participants to apply these frameworks and tools to real-world.

Date of the Activity: 20 Aug 2019

Organizing Unit/Department: Public Administration

Program Coordinator: Prof. H. V. Nagargoje

Students Participated: 86

Report of the Activity

The "Analysing Complex Situations" workshop conducted by the R. S. college was a highly informative and interactive session aimed at enhancing the critical thinking and problem-solving skills of the participants.

The workshop was conducted by Dr. Dilip Folane who shared their knowledge and expertise in analysing complex situations.

The workshop covered various topics such as identifying the root causes of complex situations, analysing data to find patterns and trends, developing effective solutions, and implementing them. The participants were encouraged to share their experiences and challenges in dealing with complex situations.

The Analysing Complex Situations Workshop program was designed to help individuals and organizations develop skills for effectively analysing and solving complex problems. The workshop covered topics such as critical thinking, problem-solving frameworks, root cause analysis, and decision-making models.

Participants learnt how to identify and analyse complex situations, gather and evaluate information, and develop effective solutions. The workshop also includes interactive exercises and case studies to help participants apply the concepts to real-world scenarios.

Overall, the workshop emphasized the importance of taking a holistic approach to analysing complex situations.
